

About Omaha

Omaha is home to one of the most renowned zoos in the world, the Henry Doorly Zoo is known for its large indoor rainforest and indoor desert exhibits. Located on the Missouri River and close to the Iowa border, Omaha is also well known for its pioneer history.

As a stop on the Lewis and Clark historic trail, Omaha is rich in history with plenty of museums, historical sites, and cultural centers to educate and entertain visitors. Offering a mix of history and historical sites, Omaha makes for one of the more popular destinations in Nebraska.

If the museums don't give you enough time on your feet, the Bob Kerrey pedestrian bridge is another famous destination for visitors. As a 3000-foot pedestrian bridge that spans the Missouri river, it connects Omaha and Council Bluffs Iowa, allowing you to bounce between the two states on foot.

Walking between the states you may build up an appetite, thankfully Omaha is famous for its Reuben sandwiches and farm-to-table foods. As a large agricultural and farm-state, fresh farmed foods are a common sight in many restaurants across the state.

Home to many of the top 100 certified restaurants on the Good Food List, Omaha has some of the freshest food that you can find in any city across the country. Offering visitors a delicious variety of farm-fresh foods that leave a lasting impression.

Baby Shower Options in Omaha

Hosting a baby shower requires an assortment of services, ranging from food, decorations, venue, and more. But don't stress, there are plenty of companies that specialize in providing these services to make your party a success.

From baby showers and weddings to birthday parties and company functions, finding the right services helps your event run smoothly and makes it more enjoyable for yourself and your guests.

- Caterers

Finding the right food for your party can be made easy using a catering service. Caterers provide enough food for your guests ready to eat and delivered to your venue.

- Florist

Floral arrangements can add an extra pop of color to your party, available in a variety of sizes and colors, hiring a florist can provide you with the finishing touches for your party.

- Decorator

Much like a florist, hiring a decorator to organize and arrange your baby shower can take a heavyweight off your shoulders. A professional decorator will ensure that your party has the look and feel that impresses your guests and makes your party stand out.

- Transportation

Providing your guests with an easy way to get to and from your venue can be an unexpected surprise, making your party that much more memorable. For those visiting from out of town, providing transportation can make the event more enjoyable.

- Equipment Rental

For those specific needs, an equipment rental company can provide you with anything your party needs. From projectors and sound systems to karaoke machines and tables, using a rental company is an easy way to get what you need.

- Entertainment

If you're looking to add a little extra flair to your event, consider hiring some live entertainment such as a band, comedian, or dance group. Live entertainment can add that something extra to your party, ensuring that it is unique and memorable.

Event Planning Companies in Omaha

- Dream Big Events

Celebrating their 4th year as one of the top-rated event planners by Three Best Rated, Dream Big is well known throughout Nebraska. They take pride in bringing all the details together to create an imaginative, and memorable party.

- Lovestruck Events

With more than 250 events under its belt, Lovestruck uses its team's combined strengths to plan and design outstanding events and parties for its clients.

- 402 Events

Alleviating your stresses by taking the reins, 402 Events focuses on making the event planning process smooth and easy. Transforming spaces into something special that fits your needs, their combined experience ensures fun and unique event.

- FUNdamentals Events

Hosting parties for companies such as PayPal and Cisco, FUNdamental Events brings over 20 years of experience to event planning. Focusing on making everything from baby showers, weddings, and company functions something special.

Pros and Cons of having a Baby Shower in Omaha

Pros

- Historical City

Omaha is full of historical sites, museums, and buildings that provide visitors a chance to take a trip into the past. As a stop of the Lewis and Clark trail, Omaha has a unique past that makes it a popular tourist destination.

- Fresh Food

As one of the leading states of the farm-to-table concept, the city offers some of the freshest food you can get. Locally grown foods delivered straight to the restaurant make dining an experience in itself.

- Music Scene

From jazz to country, Omaha offers a mix of music that is sure to entertain and amuse. With local bands playing everything from covers to symphonies, the music in Omaha is plentiful.

- Commuting is Easy

Whether touring the city or looking for a restaurant, commuting in Omaha is an easy experience. With a lower population than most major cities, traffic is relatively light making commute times lower.

- Prices are Reasonable

Traveling is always pricey, but Omaha won't break the bank as other cities can. The cost of food, lodge, and commuting is cheaper than other major cities in the US.

Cons

- Road Conditions are Rough
With potholes, cracks, and crumbling gutters, some of the roads around the city can be rough, making for a bumpy ride while traveling around.
- Crime Rates
Compared to other cities, crime per capita is one of the highest in the country. The city works hard on improving the more run-down neighborhoods to help alleviate, and improve the ongoing issue.
- Limited Market
Being smaller than other cities, Omaha has a limited market when it comes to venues and rentals. This can make it challenging to book the perfect location and requires long-term planning.
- Population is Rising
The population has been steadily rising as people are moving out of larger cities, making the city feel more crowded and busy than normal. This causes busier roads, restaurants, and wait times to get into events and venues.
- Weather Extremes
From its bitter winters to its hot and humid summers, Omaha has weather from one extreme to the other.

Famous Baby Shower Locations in Omaha

Having such a diverse and famous history, Omaha has plenty of entertainment, education, and adventure for the locals and visitors alike.

- Henry Doorly Zoo and Aquarium
Spread over 160 acres, the Henry Doorly Zoo is home to the world-famous dome desert and the largest indoor rainforest. As one of the top attractions in the state, the zoo has plenty of exhibits and enclosures to keep you busy.

- Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge

Connecting Nebraska and Iowa, the bridge spans 3000 feet and offers travelers a view of the Missouri River. With a network of hiking trails connected, the bridge has outdoor activities and adventures for all ages.

- Old Market District

With its cobblestone streets and historical buildings, the old market district gives visitors a chance to visit the past. Surrounded by local eateries and cafes, the market is a great place to spend a warm summer day.

Citations:

<https://www.visitomaha.com/blog/post/omaha-fun-facts/#:~:text=1.,North%20America's%20large%20indoor%20rainforest.&text=2.>

<https://www.dreambigevents.net/>

<http://lovestruckevents.co/>

<https://402eventservices.com/>

<http://www.fundamentalsevents.com/>

<https://www.quora.com/What-are-the-pros-and-cons-of-living-in-Omaha-Nebraska>

<https://www.planetware.com/tourist-attractions-/omaha-us-ne-o.htm>