

About Charlotte

As part of the Nashville Tennessee metropolitan area, Charlotte is rich in cultural diversity and entertainment. Just 32 miles from one of the most well-known country music capitals in the U.S, Charlotte is a historic and unique city that is known for more than music.

Smaller in size and population than nearby Nashville, Charlotte is a slower pace, and quieter town that remains close enough to the big city for an easy commute. Enjoying the benefits that Nashville offers, while avoiding the crowds and traffic that comes with a larger city is just one of the appealing benefits that Charlotte offers.

For much of the 19th century, Charlotte thrived as a stagecoach hub, welcoming travelers from all walks of life. With the railroad arriving in the second half of the century, the town quieted down with most of the travelers and industrial industries shifting to Dickson which sits a short distance to the southwest.

With its 19th century popularity, the town of Charlotte has preserved many of its historic buildings and landmarks. From antique stores to museums and historic state parks, the town offers visitors a chance to follow in the footsteps of travelers from the past.

Having something historic and restored around almost every turn, Charlotte provides some unique, and one-of-a-kind event spaces that can't be found anywhere else. The beauty and character of the aged buildings make for a memorable, and intriguing space to host weddings, baby showers, and birthday parties.

Birthday Party Options in Charlotte

Celebrations that are memorable, fun, and unique are the ones that will stick with guests and everyone in attendance for a lifetime. Getting all the pieces to come together can feel like a daunting task, but bringing in some outside help from professional companies and services can help with both the planning and execution of any event.

- Decoration

Having a decorator who can turn a space into something amazing for events and parties is crucial. Everything from birthday parties, to weddings and family get-togethers, can be custom-designed and decorated to fit any occasion.

- Caterers

Food is a key ingredient to any successful event, finding something that everyone in attendance can enjoy can be a tricky task. However, finding a local caterer that can prepare, deliver, and sometimes serve a variety of food to guests can be a great solution.

- Florists

Flower arrangements and displays that complement the decorations, and themes can be that extra detail that makes any event unique. Florists can provide parties with a large selection of color, scent, and beautiful floral pieces that fit into any venue.

- Equipment Rentals

Whether it's large projectors for a corporate function or smaller items for smaller individual parties, equipment rentals can provide the items needed to host a successful event.

- Photographers

Documenting moments that can last a lifetime, or finding the perfect photo to advertise a business meeting, a photographer can capture moments that can be kept for years to come.

- Videographers

Some moments are best revisited through video, unlike photography, a videographer captures the sound, atmosphere, and moments through their living pictures.

Event Planning Companies in Charlotte

- Velour Premier Events

One of the top-rated event planning companies in the Nashville area, Velour believes that every event is a special milestone that deserves precise and extraordinary planning that turns it into something memorable.

- Laurie D'Anne Events

Working to turn your dream party or event into reality, Laurie D'Anne Events is known throughout Tennessee for planning some of the most unique, and magical events around.

- Total Package Events

Serving the Nashville and Kentucky area for over 25 years, Total Package Events is a full-service event planning company that is focused on making any size party special or event one of a kind.

- Big Events Inc.

“Wowing the socks off of all who attend”, is what Big Events Inc. strives to do for any occasion. From birthday parties to larger functions, they aim to plan events that are customized and unique for their clients.

Pros and Cons of Having a Birthday Party in Charlotte

Pros

- Historical Sights

Charlotte’s rich history makes it a fun and educational town for the entire family to visit. From its museums to historical parks, the town has plenty to offer for visitors to see.

- Music

With its location near Nashville, the town has a love for music and arts. Charlotte is home to some individual talent that can’t be found anywhere else.

- Locals

Smaller than many of the surrounding cities, the town has a small-time vibe and the locals embrace educating, and showing off their culture and history.

- Small town Feel

Fewer crowds and less traffic are always a plus when traveling anywhere. Charlotte offers sites and entertainment while avoiding the heavier populated cities.

- Location to Major City

Having that small-town feel but close enough to larger cities, Charlotte is close enough to Nashville that a day trip is easy to plan to experience a more active nightlife and a larger variety of activities.

Cons

- Weather
The hot humid summers can be intense, making it uncomfortable for those sensitive to heat.
- Small Town
Smaller in size and population, the town of Charlotte doesn't offer as much entertainment and nightlife as the larger cities.
- Entertainment
Most local talent performs in nearby Nashville, leaving the town of Charlotte with fewer options to keep visitors busy.
- Limited Options
Home to some beautiful and historical buildings and parks, the town has fewer venue options than other nearby cities offer, limiting the options when finding and selecting a venue.
- Travel
An extra step in travel plans is required when visiting Charlotte, away from major cities and airports, the town requires more travel to get to and from than other locations.

Famous Birthday Party Locations in Charlotte

Capable of hosting unique and fun birthday parties, weddings, and company functions, Charlotte has some breathtaking historical parks and sites that can entertain and educate visitors looking for a memorable event or party.

- Promise Land Historic Site
Promise Land, also known as the Promised land, is a historic rural community founded just north of Charlotte after the civil war. Founded by former slaves, the site has original buildings and an annual festival that celebrates its history.
- Country View Market
The Country View Market is an Amish market offering the freshest food and handmade goods in the region. Offering fresh bulk foods and an on-site deli, the market is a one-of-a-kind store to experience.
- The Patterson Ranch

For horse lovers, The Patterson Ranch offers visitors twenty acres of pastures and over ten miles of trails for horseback riding. The ranch also offers boarding and riding lessons for those wanting to learn more about taking care of and riding horses.

Citations:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Charlotte,\_Tennessee

<https://velourpremierevents.com/>

<https://www.lauriedeanneevents.com/>

<http://totalpackageevents.com/>

<http://www.bigeventsinc.com/>

https://www.tripadvisor.com/Attractions-g54945-Activities-Charlotte,\_Tennessee.html

https://www.yelp.com/search?find\_desc=things+to+do&find\_loc=Charlotte%2C+TN+37036

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Promise\_Land,\_Tennessee

<https://countryviewmarket.biz/>

<http://thepattersonranch.blogspot.com/>