

Reno-NV Weddings

About Reno

Located along the Nevada-California border and about 22 miles away from Lake Tahoe, Reno is often referred to as the biggest little city in the world. Famous for its shining neon lights and active casinos, the city offers visitors a chance of winning big in more ways than one. Activities such as rafting, baseball games, museums, and one-of-a-kind pubs are located throughout the city making it easy to host and entertain family and friends alike. Everything from weddings, corporate retreats, and family reunions can be accommodated in one of the many indoor or outdoor venue locations to create a beautiful and memorable event.

Having the ability to host indoors and out, Reno is a popular destination for those looking for a variety of options when it comes to entertainment and venue selection. Such locations as the Rancho San Rafael Regional Park offer visitors open spaces with plenty of shade and photo opportunities to host beautiful weddings and other social gatherings. Other locations such as the Terrace Lounge and Club Cal Neva allow guests to visit some of the city's original buildings and learn about the past while partaking in elegant and enticing events and parties. The options are plenty and the entertainment a one of a kind experience while visiting Reno, making it an extremely popular and famous location to host an array of events and parties.

Pros and Cons of Having a Wedding in Reno

Pros

- The Beautiful Outdoors
Located near Lake Tahoe, Reno offers beautiful and majestic outdoor scenery that is ideal for hiking, biking, camping, or just hanging with the family for a day of fun in the sun.
- Light Downtown Traffic
Commuting downtown isn't as stressful as in other major cities, the traffic downtown is surprisingly light compared to many other cities making travel simple.
- Food and Entertainment Options
Casinos and unique eateries are scattered throughout the city, from elegant wedding rehearsal dinners to playing the slots, Reno is full of good food and fun entertainment.
- Active Nightlife
Being a large casino and gambling town, many of the venues and attractions are open late into the morning hours if not 24/7, meaning that regardless of the time there is always something to do in the city.

Cons

- Bitter Winters
The winter season can be unpleasant at best, known to have bitterly cold winters that can hinder travel and entertainment.
- Public Transportation is Limited
The public transit system for downtown is extremely limited, making it easier to either drive or walk to get around the downtown area.

- Higher Than Normal Crime Rates

The crime rates within the city are higher than in other similar metropolitan areas, things from property crime to robberies are something to be aware of while visiting the city.
