

Richmond-VA Event

About Richmond

One of the nation's oldest major cities, Richmond is the capital of Virginia and has plenty of history, culture, and exciting things to see and do. The famous St. Johns Church is the historical site where Patrick Henry, one of the nation's founding fathers famously declared "Give me liberty or give me death" leading to the revolutionary war in 1775. Richmond is also home to the White House of the Confederacy where President Jefferson Davis resided during the civil war, the once confederacy capital is now a historical museum full of artifacts, paintings, and reminders of the past.

Many venues found throughout the city offer hosts and visitors beautiful federal-style architecture that is capable of accommodating any size party or event. From the large corporate functions to private parties and events, locations such as the Virginia Executive Mansion give visitors a chance to experience the one-of-a-kind style and elegance of the past. Other locations like the Maymont are ideal for larger events with their large outdoor gardens and greenspace, the victorian era estate brings the natural landscape and historic architecture together to create a memorable venue. Richmond is hands down one of Virginia's most iconic and popular event locations with so many unique locations found within the city and surrounding areas.
