About Sacramento

Sacramento sits near the Sacramento River and American River, as the capital of California it has deep roots tied to the gold rush era. The city offers visitors a chance to explore an old sacrament that is lined with wooden walkways, wagon rides, and museums that celebrate the city's past. Home to some of the nation's earliest technological feats, the museums, and historic attractions cover everything from the origins, to the railways that helped connect the nation's coastlines. It's easy to find entertaining and original attractions and venues which makes Sacramento a great place to host events of all kinds.

Having a little something for everyone, the city is home to venues such as The Leland Stanford Mansion, a restored Victorian mansion, and a museum capable of hosting events and parties of various sizes. For something more open, the state parks and open spaces provide plenty of outdoor adventure and fun with beautiful scenery that makes for a great event location. With the diversity of old and new the city of Sacramento is packed with entertainment value as well as beautiful and unique venues that are capable of hosting events and parties for any occasion.

Event Options in Sacramento

Allowing hosts to enjoy the party with guests and helping to relieve some of the stress that comes with hosting, companies around the city can help bring food, equipment, and decorations to any event or party.

- Caterer
Bringing delicious and fresh foods to any occasion, a caterer can help provide the party with enough appetizers, desserts, and dishes to keep guests full and happy.
- Decorator
Turning a room into a space worthy of remembrance, decorators can help bring a venue to life by providing unique and customized decorations to fit any theme.
- Equipment Rentals

Ensuring that there are enough chairs, tables, and other necessities is only part of what an equipment rental company can provide. Anything from audio and video equipment, to karaoke machines and projectors, can be arranged to ensure the party has everything it needs to succeed.

- Transportation

Allowing adults to enjoy a few beverages at the party, or just helping guests not get lost in a new city, transportation options such as taxis and black car services allow everyone to arrive on time and safely.

Pros and Cons of Having an Event in Sacramento

Pros

- Winter Won't Be An Issue

For the people who don't like cold wet winters, Sacramento winters are mild with little snowfall making it a popular location for those sensitive to the cold.

- Rich History Ready to Explore

The city's historic past from the gold rush era allows visitors a chance to explore what life was like for the thousands that flocked to the city during that time.

- Plenty Of Entertainment Options

Museums, amusement parks, and Victorian-era mansions with expansive gardens are just some of the things ready to explore while within the city.

Cons

- Allergies Can Be Severe

Rated as one of the worst places for allergies in the nation, coughing from pollen becomes a way of life while within the city for those sensitive to allergies.

- Traffic Everywhere

Downtown can be overcrowded and packed bumper to bumper, making travel difficult and unpleasant.

- Crime Rates

Compared to other cities, the crime rates in Sacramento are higher than average. From petty crime to more serious acts, there are certain places to avoid while within the city.

Famous Event Locations in Sacramento

People of all ages and interests can find something unique, fun, and informative while visiting the city of Sacramento. With its one-of-a-kind museums and attractions, the city gives everyone a chance to experience something new and entertaining while visiting.

- Sutter's Fort State Park

Established in 1839, the Sutter's Fort offers visitors the chance to experience what life was like in the past. Associated with the California gold rush, the fort serves as a museum and an all-day attraction with exhibits, costumed staff, and gift shops that allow visitors to spend a day re-living history.

- Fairytale Town

The long-standing Fairytale Town is a unique kids attraction and a fantastic way to spend the day out with family. The town has plenty of themed play areas that allow kids to run, climb, and play, all focused around famous fairytales. Fairytale Town gives kids a break from the museums and historical adult stuff that may be of little interest to them, it allows them to experience living life inside a fairytale and burns off some excess energy.

- Governor's Mansion State Historic Park

The official residence of the governor of California, the mansion was built in 1877 and purchased by the state in 1903. Serving 14 governors since then, the mansion has been unoccupied since 2015 and is now available for visitors to tour. With its historical background, beautiful gardens, and unique history, the mansion is an entertaining and elegant attraction for history lovers.
