

Washington DC Private Party

About Washington DC

Bordering Maryland and Virginia, Washington DC is located on the Potomac River and is the capital of the United States. Iconic architecture and monuments can be found throughout the city offering visitors insight into the nation's history as well as offering unique and one-of-a-kind venues to suit any occasion. With its neoclassic feel and style, the city offers stunning locations to host a wide array of events including weddings, birthdays, or private parties.

Not only is Washington DC home to historical buildings and beauty, but it also houses famous museums and art centers such as the Kennedy Center for performing arts and the Smithsonian National Museum of Natural History. Well-known locations such as the Washington Monument, and Ford's Theatre can also awe and entertain visitors with their rich history that has inspired the nation. Having so many locations within the city allows for a large selection of venues to host events and parties of any size or occasion, from reunions to small-scale private parties, Washington DC offers choices that cover just about anything a party needs.

Private Party Options in Washington DC

Regardless of size, theme, or reason, Washington DC provides a selection of professional companies that can provide services essential to throw a successful get-together. Covering everything from food, to photos and transportation, the city is filled with eager talent ready to make any event stand out and become one worthy of remembrance.

- Caterers

Local and national favorites alike can be found hot, fresh, and delivered to any event or party. Offering a variety large enough to cover the pickiest of eaters makes feeding guests simple, and convenient.

- Decorators

Bringing parties and social gatherings to life through the use of creative decorations can help make any gathering memorable. From historically themed birthdays to upscale private parties, professional decorators can transform a venue into a work of art.

- Transportation

Traffic, road work, and unknown territory can make it difficult for guests to navigate unknown cities. Providing transportation options to get everyone around safely and efficiently can help alleviate the headache and take some weight off of everyone's shoulders.

- Photographers

Seeing a friend or family member in an Abraham Lincoln outfit is something no one would want to forget, recruiting a photographer can help ensure that all the special moments and laughs can live on and be remembered for a lifetime.

- Unique Entertainment

Music, laughter, and one-of-a-kind performances can help set the atmosphere and turn any gathering into something that is talked about years down the road. Local talent such as bands, comedians, and even reenactors can help ensure that guests are entertained and impressed.
